REPORT:

Mr. Edwin R. Embree, President. G. W. Hubbard Hospital,
The Julius Rosenwald Fund, Nashville, Tenn.,
4901 Ellis Avenue, May 25, 1936.
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Mr. Embree:-

I have known Miss Ollie Jewel Sims for five years, as a citizen, student nurse, and supervisor of Medical Floor in our Hospital.

In each capacity she has been regarded as the highest type. She is of unusual intelligence, high moral character, efficient, industrious, and cooperative. We here at Hubbard have come to look upon her as indispensable, but are more than glad to see her making efforts for further advancement in her chosen field.

I personally recommend her for any position for which she may apply.
Respectfully yours,
Earl T. Odom, B.S.M.D.
