

Candidate David Edward Carroll ✓

Special Field

Director of Music, Johnson C. Smith University
Charlotte, North Carolina

School Music

Plan of Work

To obtain further training which will enable me to direct the introduction and promotion of an improved program of musical instruction at Johnson C. Smith University, Charlotte, North Carolina.

Wishes to work for Mus.M. at the Chicago Musical College, beginning June, 1938, for the period of twelve months. Can return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born December, 1907, Louisville, Kentucky. Single.

Mus.B. from Oberlin College, 1929. Attended Chicago Musical College, summer, 1937.

Instructor of Music, West Virginia State College, Institute, West Virginia, 1930-35, $1400. Director of Music, Johnson C. Smith University, 1935-36, $1899.92.

Creative work: Melody in A (for organ). Prelude in B (for organ). Improvisation (for piano).

Review of, "A Portrayal of Negro Life", by William A. Cooper, The Quarterly Review of Higher Education Among Negroes (January, 1937).

First Semester scholarship, $50, to Oberlin College, September, 1925 to January, 1926.

References

Budget Summary

Dr. H. L. McCrorey, President, Johnson C. Smith University	Total amount needed	$1700
✓ T. E. McKinney, Dean, Johnson C. Smith University	From applicant	200
✓ John W. Davis, President, West Virginia State College	From Fund	$1500
David Mayer - Oberlin	Granted
Committee Notes

Documents submitted

- Photograph x
- Exhibit material x
- Transcripts x

Oberlin College

Plan of work

x

Digest

Complete

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

