

FELLOWSHIPS

1937-and 1938 awards
NEGROES ENGAGED IN SOME PHASE OF LITERARY RESEARCH

Lists

Arna Bontemps

Books for Negro children, and a historical novel of French colonials in siege of Savannah

E. A. Lanier

American literature and language
Idea of the Southern gentleman in American fiction.

Reed E. Peggram:

Research in Comparative literature
Notion of Decadence in 19th Century literature

Frank M. Snowden, Jr.

Classic languages, literature, and anthropology

Richard A. Carroll

Century
19th Century criticism of Shakespeare

Frank M. Davis

Creative writing, especially poetry

Hilda Lawson

Negro in American drama

Stanton L. Wormlèy

Studies in English and German literature, specifically Heine's Impact on Victorial England

Guichard B . Parris

French history and literature - biographical study of Abbe Henri Gregoire, as related to anti-slavery movement