WILLIAM WOODROW CHAMBERLAIN

26

Graduate Student, Part-time instructor in English
Leland Stanford University

Creative Writing
Sociology

Top candidate

Fine - and unusual - combination of scholarship and ability in creative writing

Sound idea for him to transfer (after two years at Stanford) to Vanderbilt in the South

Aside from fine scholarly record and some library promise we haven't as much to take hold of here as in case of Lowell & Brown or Collier
