

Candidate Cary Robertson

Special Field Journalism

Sunday Editor, The Courier-Journal

Louisville, Kentucky address C 1 Anchorage, Ky

Plan of Work

To study attitude of public to press in Great Britain and the Continent:
(a) to what extent readers believe newspapers honest and unbiased; (b) to what extent newspapers, according to expert opinions, misrepresent news voluntarily or by governmental influence; (c) what news material the public reads.

Wishes to study for one year. Can return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born April, 1902, Louisville, Kentucky. Married.

Attended Wake Forest College, N. C. 1920-22; University of Virginia, 1922-25.

Reporter, rewrite man, city editor, to Sunday editor, Courier-Journal, Louisville, 1925 - , $30 to $60 per week.

References

- Mr. Barry Bingham, Publisher, Courier-Journal
- Mr. Mark Ethridge, Courier-Journal
- Mr. Neil Dalton, Courier-Journal
- Mr. F. E. Wylie, University of Louisville
- Mr. George Kidd, United Press Bureau, Berlin
- Mr. E. A. Chester, Associated Press Building, New York
- Mr. Harry Rogers Pratt, University of Virginia

Committee Notes

Budget Summary

| | |
|---------------------|-------------|
| Total amount needed | $ 3950 |
| From applicant | 1000 |
| From Fund | $ 2950 |

Granted

out

Documents submitted

- Photograph
- Exhibit material
- Transcripts
- Wake Forest College
- University of Virginia

Plan of work

Digest

Sent to Committee 5/16

Documents returned

