Gentlemen:

I regret very much to state my reason for not filling your confidential report with reference to Dr. Lucilius C. Youngblood, is that I cannot place him. This is the second report I have received from you and I had one letter from him, but positively I cannot establish our acquaintance, therefore, it is impossible for me to give any confidential report of him.

Regretting my inability to serve you, I am

Yours truly,

J. S. Clark
President
