My dear Mr. Embree:

Johnson is a young colored physician of very pleasing personality and good sense, well liked by his instructors at college (Oberlin) as well as at the medical school. His scholarship was not outstanding, but creditable. He has developed a special interest in pathology and wishes to make a career in this. Professor Karsner thinks highly of him and would be glad to give him the opportunity. I believe him thoroughly worthy of support ~~in~~ that he will do credit to it. I recommend him highly. ml

Very truly yours,

Forald Sollmann
