Music - composition

Born in New Mexico - not South in our definition

Very high - superlative - letter from David Stanley Smith of Yale School of Music "unusual gifts, perhaps most marked of any graduate of Yale to be found in two decades - I shall not be surprised if he takes the lead among our native composers"

For Stravinski "very gifted + serene musician of whom I have great expectation"
He wants to use Southern folk material in symphonies

he may be very frank those helped this man <sup>in the early part</sup> toward a career of great distinction

In his work in College of Music he was thought A So he is no one sided crack
