

Librarian (Head of Binding Department)
Louisiana State University
Baton Rouge, Louisiana

History

Over age

The project is decidedly not Southern

She is not a southerner - just happens to be working there now

1941 DS
1943

Name May Evelyn Olson Field: History

Librarian (Head of Binding Department)
Louisiana State University
Baton Rouge, Louisiana

Plan of Work

To prepare a complete list of American newspapers and journals printed in the German language, together with a record of files available in American public and private collections.

Wishes to work for one year beginning October, 1943. Will return to present position.

Personal Data Born Lodgepole, Nebraska, August 1899 Age: 43
Single

Undergraduate Work University of Nebraska, A. B., 1923

Graduate Work Western Reserve University, School of Library Science, Certificate, 1924

Louisiana State University, M. A., 1937

Experience Reference Librarian, Coe College Library, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, 1924-29, $1500-1700; head of binding department Louisiana State University Library, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, 1929- , $1900-2200

Accomplishments Master's Thesis: Louisiana in German Imaginative Literature.

Preliminary list, in manuscript form, together with card index of 3000 titles (to date): American Newspapers and Journals Printed in the German Language

References

- Miss Lucy B. Foote, Louisiana State University Library
- Mr. James A. McMillen, Louisiana State University
- Dr. Karl J. R. Arndt, Louisiana State University
- Dr. Robert T. Clark, Jr. Louisiana State University
- Dr. A. E. Zucker, Carl Schurz Memorial Foundation

Budget Summary

Total Amount Needed	$2000
From Applicant	-
From Fund	$2000

Sent to Committee

AMOUNT GRANTED

