

Candidate Earlene Brewer ✓

Special Field

Home Demonstration Agent, Extension Service
Shipman, Virginia

Home Economics

Plan of Work

To study and hence be able to teach or supervise instructions in methods of teaching to raise the standards of the south.

Wishes to work for M.S at Columbia University, beginning 1938 for the period of one year.

Digest of Application

Born April, 1912, Vienna, Georgia. Single.

Obtained B. S. from Hampton Institute, 1936.

Principal, Wema School, Wemahitchka, Florida, 1931-32, $500. Home Economics Teacher, Shipp Training School, Americus, Georgia, 1932-33, $450. Home Economics Teacher, George P. Phenix Grammar School, 1933-37, $300. Home Agent, Virginia Extension Service, Blacksburg, Virginia, 1937- , $1200.

Scholarship to Hampton Institute from 1933 through 1936, $100 year.

References

Budget Summary

✓ Mr. Arthur Howe, President, Hampton Institute (Aery)	Total amount needed	$1,185
✓ Mr. Anthony Aery, Director of School, Hampton Institute	From applicant	185
✓ Lieut. L. A. Oxley, Field Representative, U. S. Dept. of Labor, Washington, D. C.	From Fund	$1,000

Committee Notes

Granted

Documents submitted

Photograph
 Exhibit material
 Transcripts
 Hampton Institute

Plan of work

Digest

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

