

Candidate Richard Melvin Haskins ✓
Student, University of Illinois

Special Field

Organic Chemistry

Plan of Work

*615 S. Wright St.
Champaign*

Seeks Ph.D. at University of Illinois under Dr. Roger Adams. The problem under way is the investigation of restricted rotation in certain dinitrophenyl hydroquinones.

Has been admitted. One year.

Wishes to teach in a Negro college.

Digest of Application

Born August, 1915, Thurber, Texas. Single.

A.B. from DePauw University, 1936; M.A. from University of Illinois, 1937. Now doing further graduate work at University of Illinois.

Published "An Experiment in Teaching High School Chemistry" in Journal of Chemical Education 14, 521 (1937).

Had Rector Scholarship at DePauw University from 1932-36, $1000 covering tuition only.

(504)

References

- Dr. Roger Adams, Head, Department of Chemistry, University of Illinois
- Dr. C. S. Marvel, Prof. of Chemistry at Illinois
- Dr. R. C. Fuson, Prof. of Chemistry, Illinois

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	$1100
From applicant	100
From Fund	$1000

Committee Notes

Granted

Documents submitted

- Photograph x
- Exhibit material
- Transcripts x
- DePauw University
- University of Illinois

Plan of work

Digest complete

Sent to Committee FEB 13 1938

Documents returned

