

Name Earl Richard Moses
 Professor of Sociology
 Morgan College, Baltimore, Maryland

Field: Sociology

(Applied 1939)

Plan of Work

Graduate study at the University of Pennsylvania; in residence for the academic term 1940-41; candidate for the Ph. D. degree; thesis to be completed in absentia ('41-42); and, final semester prior to granting of degree to be spent in residence. Ph. D. thesis: "The Negro Delinquent in Baltimore." It is anticipated that such a study will throw light not only on Negro youth in Baltimore, but also upon Negro youth in other urban centers. Moreover, it is anticipated that additional light will be thrown on problems of migration, racial segregation, and personality adjustment. Publication as a doctorate dissertation.

Has not been admitted to University of Pennsylvania. Wishes to work under Professors Sellin and Young. Would require two years. Would return to present position.
