Sociology

Pretty good candidate - fuzzy Scholastic record for former distinguished work with Davis at Yale would have rather than help her. While we might influence her to go elsewhere her choice of Davis seems to me to indicate her lack of proof of her field.

Good project; is the type
we used in the South.
Probably worth a renewal.*

Plan of Work

An examination of racial stereotypes and other study to discover, as far as may be, the grounds for prejudice among races, with a view towards assisting in methods of corrective education.

Wishes to attend Yale University for one year beginning in September, 1943. Will work under the supervision of Mr. Maurice M. Davie toward a Ph. D. degree. Has not been admitted. Will not return to present position.

Personal Data Born Jonesboro, Arkansas, August, 1914 Single.

Age: 28

Undergraduate Work Goucher College, A. B., 1936.

Graduate Work

Experience

Instructor, Dixie High School, Lake City Arkansas, 1940-41, 1941-42, Jonesboro High School, Arkansas, 1942 to present, $640-$900.

Accomplishments

Has made an illustrated survey of the people and industries along White River in the Ozarks, Arkansas. This would have been published by Graphic Features, but a change in policy, due to a reorganization, made the survey useless to them.
