

CARL DOUGLAS BENNETT

Assistant professor of English, Wesleyan College
Macon, Georgia

Language and Literature

Goodrich White says "his career will probably not be distinguished, but useful"

Other references high, but not from critical men or scholars

Booth Tarlington is not a Southern name

I don't see that we would be doing anything but help do his Ph. D. as an Asst Prof of a small college

Name Carl Douglas Bennett Field: Language and Literature
 Assistant professor of English, Wesleyan College
 Wesleyan College, Macon, Georgia

Plan of Work To do graduate work leading to the Ph.D. degree, plus private research on Booth Tarkington, at Princeton University.

Requests grant for one year beginning September 1947. Will return to present position. Wishes to attend Princeton University

Personal Data Born Waycross, Georgia, July, 1917 Age: 29
 Married, three dependents Draft Status: 4-E

Undergraduate Work Emory University, A.B. with honors, 1940

Graduate Work Emory University, M.A., 1945

Experience Instructor, West Georgia College, Carrollton, Georgia, 1941-42, $1600; instructor, Civilian Public Service, Gatlinburg, Tennessee, 1943-44, no salary; assistant professor, Wesleyan College, Macon Georgia, 1944- , maximum $2400 .

Accomplishments A.E.U. honorary scholarship society; South Atlantic Modern Language Association.

Research: Revision of M.A. thesis to a preliminary sketch of 75,000 words of a projected critical survey of the works of Booth Tarkington.

Publications: "Speak As The People Speak", The Christian Century, October, 1946; "Booth Tarkington, 1869-1946: An Appreciation", The Emory University Quarterly, October, 1946

Scholarships: Emory alumni competitive scholarship, Emory University, 1936-38, $300; Graduate scholarship, Emory University, 1940-41, $250; Carnegie Foundation grant, summer 1947, $750

References

References

- Thomas H. English, Emory University
- G. W. Gignilliat, Jr., Wesleyan College
- Silas Johnson, " "
- Goodrich C. White, Emory University
- H. Prentice Miller, " "
- Howard G. McClain, Mercer University, Macon, Georgia
- Constance Rumbough, Staunton, Virginia
- Sent to Committee W. B. Stubbs, Emory University
- William E. Denham, Jr., First Baptist Church, Macon

Budget Summary

Total Amount Needed	$300
From Applicant	80
From Fund	$220

AMOUNT GRANTED

