TEACHERS

D. C. CROWDER - principal, is a man of many years experience in the teaching profession, and is certificated to teach Smith-Hughes work, also other grade subjects. He is an excellent executive, and has unusual tact in dealing with the white people of the community. His veterinary work has been highly successful. The Decatur County Training School has made much progress under his direction. - Salary $1800

S. F. DOBBINS - who, in addition to helping teach the regular subjects in the Training School here, does some evening class work out in the rural communities. He is a graduate of A. & I. State College. This is his first year in the teaching profession, but he impresses me as an excellent first-year man. - Salary $800

ROWLAND CROWDER - teacher of intermediate grades, holds a five-year professional certificate based on work done at A. & I. State College. This is also his first year to teach with us, having taught in other counties, however, but his work seems to be satisfactory. - Salary $560

GRETCHIN CRAIG - teacher of primary grades, is a teacher of many years experience. She holds a permanent examination certificate, and is well qualified. She has taught in Decatur County for a number of years, and has always given satisfaction. She is a conscientious, hard worker, honest in her words and dealings, and well respected by the white people. Salary $600

SIRILDY DUNGEY - Home Economics teacher, comes to us from A. & I. State College, having graduated there last year. She is putting her work over well. - Salary $640
