FELLOWSHIPS

Circular + four letters

April 27, 1944

Dear Miss Adams:

I am most sorry to inform you that you were not one of those selected for an award at the final meeting of the Committee on Fellowships of the Julius Rosenwald Fund.

I trust you will understand that the Committee's action does not imply a lack of interest in or approval of your project; only a small number of fellowships can be granted out of hundreds of applications, each of which is given the most thoughtful attention. This year after careful consideration the Committee on Fellowships selected a total of 37 Fellows - 22 Negroes and 15 white Southerners.

With sincere good wishes for the future.

Very truly yours,

VANDI V. HAYGOOD
