

1941

Name Cobb, William Montague (1904) Negro
White Southerner

Position Associate Professor of Anatomy, School of Medicine, Howard University Special Field Biology
Group Anatomy

College Amherst College, A. B., 1925

University Howard University, M. D., 1929: Western Reserve University, Ph. D., 1932

Plan of Work:

To prepare standards and an atlas of age changes in the human skeleton, covering span of adult life, with special reference to variations related to sex and race, at Western Reserve University, 9 months.

Action of Fellowship Committee:

Granted $2,000

Howard University, Instructor in Embryology, 1928-29, Assistant Professor of Anatomy, 1932-34, and Associate Professor of Anatomy, 1934-.

Held GEB fellowship for study at Western Reserve University for two years at $2000 a year, 1930-32.

While on fellowship appointed Associate in Anatomy at Western Reserve University. This rank confers upon the visitor the same faculty status as he holds in his own institution.

520 W. Street, N. W.
Washington, D. C.

FISK

UNIVERSITY

COBB, WILLIAM MONTAGUE

PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Appointed Professor of Anatomy, Howard University, July, 1942.

9/25/44: President-elect, Medico-Chirurgical Society of the District of Columbia; Associate Editor - American Journal of Physical Anthropology; Associate Editor - Journal of the National Medical Association; Member, Board of Managers, Anthropological Society of America.

FISK
UNIVERSITY

COBB, W. MONTAGUE

PUBLICATIONS

"Physical Anthropology of the American Negro", American Journal of Physical Anthropology, June 30, 1942.

See publications in file.

FISK
UNIVERSITY

