

Candidate James Alexander Boyer ✓

Special Field

Instructor of English Literature and Composition
St. Augustine's College, Raleigh, North Carolina

American Literature

Plan of Work

I plan to study the poetry of Carl Sandburg and Vachel Lindsay in an effort to show how form and theme of modern poetry have broken the bonds of conservatism.

Seeking Ph. D. in American Literature from University of Michigan. Duration of study two years at least, to begin September, 1938.

Will return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born approximately 1907, Raleigh, North Carolina. Single.

B. A. Morehouse College, 1931. M. A. Atlanta University, 1934.

Experience: St. Augustine's College, instructor of literature, 1934 to present, 1950.

References

Mrs. Julia Delany, St. Augustine's College, Raleigh, N. C.

Mr. G. Lewis Chandler, Morehouse College, Atlanta

Mr. N. P. Tillman, Morehouse College, Atlanta

Budget Summary

Total amount needed $756

From applicant - -

From Fund $756

Committee Notes

Granted

Documents submitted

Photograph x

Exhibit material

Transcripts

Morehouse College

Atlanta University

Plan of work x

Digest brief

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

