

Name William Worthington Jeffries Field: History
Acting Assistant Professor of History
University of Mississippi

Plan of Work

I contemplate making a study of Gideon Welles as Lincoln's secretary of the navy. Later this will be made the basis of a biographical study of Welles. Eventually I hope to use this material in a broader project which will center upon a more general Civil War naval history. The bulk of the material may be found in Washington, D. C. Other places also must be visited.

Wishes to work for one year beginning June or September, 1942. Probable duration of work approximately three years.
