

Candidate

Hugh Morris Gloster ✓
Assistant Professor of English
LeMoyne College, Memphis, Tennessee

Special Field

English & Amer. Literature

Plan of Work

To spend a year of residential graduate study toward the Ph.D. degree and to undertake research toward the completion of a detailed critical and historical account of American Negro Literature since 1900.

Wishes to study at New York University under Dr. Arthur Huntington Mason.

Has not yet sought admittance. One year.

Can return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born May, 1911, Brownsville, Tennessee. Married.

A.B. from Morehouse College, 1931; M.A. from Atlanta University, 1935.

Assistant Professor, LeMoyne College, 1935-38, $1635.

Research: Tennyson's Interest in Science and Its Influence on His Life and Poetry; A Study of the English Requirements of Negro Colleges.

Creative Work: Contributions to "The Brown Thrush", an anthology of Negro College Verse of which he is editor.

Scholarships: two, each for $200, from Atlanta University, 1931-32 and 1932-33.

References

Dr. Frank Sweeney, President, LeMoyne College
Dr. W.E.B. DuBois, Atlanta University
Dr. Florence Read, President, Spelman College

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	2500
From applicant	800
From Fund	1500

Committee Notes

Granted

Documents submitted

Photograph x
Exhibit material
Transcripts x
LeMoyne College
Atlanta University

Plan of work x

Digest brief

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

