

HARRISON DUNCAN LAWLESS, JR.

Graduate student and graduate assistant
School of Education, Indiana University
Bloomington

Education

All references dummy with faint praise

Name Harrison Duncan Lawless, Jr. Field: Education

Graduate student and graduate assistant in School of Education, Indiana Univ.
910 West Seventh Street, Bloomington, Indiana

Plan of Work After completing residence requirements and course work, he will return to Southern University, Baton Rouge, Louisiana to resume work as critic teacher and supervisor of student teaching.

Requests grant from July 1, 1948 to August 15, 1949. Wishes to work toward the Doctor of Education degree at Indiana University under the supervision of Dr. Carl G. F. Franzen.

Personal Data Born Baton Rouge, Louisiana, December 1911 Age: 36
Married, three dependents

Undergraduate Work Fisk University, A.B., 1932

Graduate Work Columbia University, M.A., 1938
Indiana University, 1946-

Experience Assistant principal and social science teacher, Parish Training School, Delhi, La., 1932-34, $750 plus maintenance; director of physical education and social science teacher, Reddy Street School, Baton Rouge, La., 1934-38, $900; part-time field executive, Istrouma Area Council, Boys Scouts of America, 1934-38, $600 and travel; assistant principal and critic teacher, Southern University, Baton Rouge, 1938-46, $2750.

Accomplishments

References

Carl G. F. Franzen, Indiana University
Wendell W. Wright, " "
Ruth G. Strickland, " "
William Fox, " "
Felton Clark, Southern University

Budget Summary

Total Amount Needed	$1120
From Applicant
From Fund	$1120

AMOUNT GRANTED

