

Publicity

JULIUS ROSENWALD FUND FELLOWSHIPS

Awards for 1942

W ✓ LAMAR BAKER, Atlanta, Georgia: for creative work in painting the southern scene.

W THOMAS EDWARD BELL, Murfreesboro, Tennessee: for a book describing the redemption of a soil-eroded Tennessee farm.

pekk.

N ARNA WENDELL BONTEMPS, Illinois Writers' Project, Chicago, Illinois: for studies in library science, at the University of Chicago.

ok

N WILLIAM MADISON BOYD, instructor in social sciences, Fort Valley State College, Fort Valley, Georgia: for a study of the criteria which were set up by the United States for the independence of the Philippines, at the University of Michigan.

N FLORENCE BEATTY BROWN, instructor in social sciences, State Teachers College, Fayetteville, North Carolina: for a study of a middle-class Negro family from 1870 to the present.

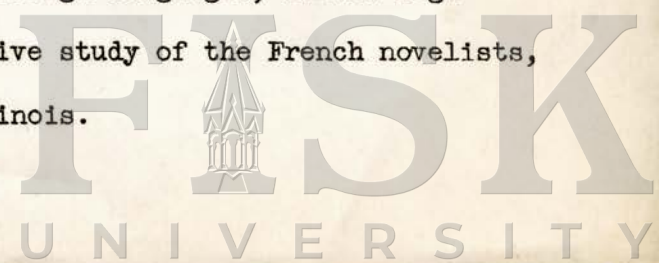

N STERLING A. BROWN, associate professor of English, Howard University, Washington, D. C.: to write a book on the Negro in the contemporary South, and to begin a novel of three Negro generations.

W WILLIAM OSCAR BROWN, assistant professor of sociology, Howard University, Washington, D. C.: to study the racial situation in Puerto Rico, Santo Domingo, Cuba, and the Virgin Islands. Reappointment.

Wayne

N CHARLES WESLEY BUGGS, head of the division of the sciences, Dillard University, New Orleans, Louisiana: for studies in zoology and research in the physiology of marine life, at Woods Hole, Massachusetts, and the University of Chicago. appointed to Wayne U. 1943 - Has been doing research on treatment of burns & wound infections - sulfa, penicillin etc. bacteriologist.

N JOHN HANNIBAL CARTER, teacher of foreign languages, Sumner High School, St. Louis, Missouri: for a comparative study of the French novelists, Bourget and Balzac, at the University of Illinois.

Home address
N JEREMIAH CERTAINE, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania: for studies in mathematics, at Harvard University. Reappointment.

Charlottesville
W LEWIS CAMPBELL COPELAND, assistant professor of sociology, Fisk University, Nashville, Tennessee: for a study of racial attitudes and ideologies.

Home address
W ESTHER WORDEN DAY, instructor, Richmond School of Art, Richmond, Virginia: for creative work and study in the graphic arts, and to paint southern scenes.

Levin, Pa.
N FRANK AUGUSTUS DeCOSTA, director of Avery Institute, Charleston, South Carolina: for studies in child guidance and remedial work with children, at the University of Pennsylvania.

N JOSEPH DELANEY, New York City: to paint types of Negro laborers.

N DAVID WATSON DALY DICKSON, Portland, Maine: for studies in English, at Harvard University.

N MARY HUFF DIGGS, instructor in social work, Howard University, Washington, D. C.: for studies of the behavior of delinquent Negro children, at Bryn Mawr College.

See correspondence
N OWEN VINCENT DODSON, instructor in speech and drama, Spelman College, Atlanta, Georgia: to write a connected series of one-act plays showing the history of the American Negro.

N EMMETT EDWARD DORSEY, instructor of political science, Howard University, Washington, D. C.: for a study of the Federal Government's employment and promotional policies as they relate to Negroes, at American University.

KATHARINE EDWARDS, Lockesburg, Arkansas: for study of homes and furnishings in the South, at the New York School of Fine Arts.

N WADE ELLIS, Chandler, Oklahoma: for studies in differential geometry, at the University of Michigan.

W JOHN HENRY FAULK, Austin, Texas: for the mechanical recording of religious and folk expression among the Negroes of Texas. Reappointment.

W WILLIAM THOMAS FONTAINE, head of the department of social science, Southern University, Scotlandville, Louisiana: to study the mind and thought of the Negro as revealed in imaginative literature from 1870 to date, at the University of Pennsylvania and Fisk University.

W MANET HELEN FOWLER, New York City: for studies in social anthropology, at Columbia University. Reappointment.

W FRANK EPPSE GOODWYN, Austin, Texas: for a study of the Mexican peon in South Texas, at the University of Texas.

W THOMAS BYRD HAM, picture editor, Atlanta Journal, Atlanta, Georgia: to write a novel about the people of Georgia's Blue Ridge Mountains.

W OTTO HOLLAWAY, principal, Waterloo Schools, Waterloo, Alabama: to study the adjustment of the high school to pupil and community needs in the South, at George Peabody College.

W CLIFTON RALPH JONES, Nanticoke, Maryland: to study the social stratification of Negroes, at the University of Iowa. Reappointment.

W HARNETT THOMAS KANE, reporter, The New Orleans Item, New Orleans, Louisiana: to write a book reappraising early Louisiana history.

W THOMAS HENDERSON KERR, JR., Library of Congress, Washington, D. C.: for creative work in musical composition, at the Juilliard School of Music.

W CHARLES RADFORD LAWRENCE, JR., co-executive secretary, National Student Y. M. C. A., Atlanta, Georgia: for a study of the racial-radical social movements among Negroes in Harlem, at Columbia University.

W JACOB LAWRENCE, New York City: for creative work in painting. Reappointment.

✓✓
N MARGARET MORGAN LAWRENCE, M. D., interne, Harlem Hospital, New York City: for studies in public health and pediatrics, at DeLamar Institute of Public Health, College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia University.

N CLAIRE MARCELOTTE LEAKE, Pierce City, Missouri: for studies in ethnobotany, at Radcliffe College.

N ULYSSES GRANT LEE, JR., assistant professor of English, Lincoln University, Pennsylvania: for studies in American culture, at the University of Chicago. Reappointment.

W ARTHUR STANLEY LINK, New Market, Virginia: for a study of the effect of Woodrow Wilson's "New Freedom" on the South, at the University of North Carolina.

W JOHN WILLIAM LIPSCOMB, assistant city editor, The Nashville Tennessean, Nashville, Tennessee: for a study of the history of the poll tax and its relation to southern state government and social problems.

Army?
See cover?
N ROBERT LLOYD, chemist, Kingsbury Ordnance Plant, LaPorte, Indiana: for studies of the chemical and engineering aspects of the manufacture of pharmaceutical and medicinal products, at Purdue University.

500 Sci Div
Pohl
N HERMAN HODGE LONG, research assistant, department of social science, Fisk University, Nashville, Tennessee: for a comparative study of "belligerence" in minority groups as an expression of social frustration, with special reference to Negro youth, at the University of Michigan.

N EDWARD HENRY MARGETSON, organist, Church of the Crucifixion, New York City: for creative work in choral composition, under the supervision of Daniel Gregory Mason of Columbia University.

JESSE WILLIAM MARKHAM, Richmond, Virginia: for a study of wage differentials between the South and other regions with reference to five manufacturing industries, at Johns Hopkins University.

JOHN HENRY FAULK, Austin, Texas: for the mechanical recording of religious and folk expression among the Negroes of Texas. Reappointment.

WILLIAM THOMAS FOWLER, head of the department of social science, Southern University, Baton Rouge, Louisiana: to study the mind and thought of the Negro as revealed in imaginative literature from 1870 to date, at the University of Pennsylvania and Fisk University.

MARIE HELEN FOWLER, New York City: for studies in social anthropology, at Columbia University. Reappointment.

Link, Arthur: In March Mr. Link went to North Carolina State College to teach history in new pre-flight school opened on March 1, 1943, by United States Army. Had finished work on 1943 fellowship.

OTTO BOLLWAY, principal, Waterloo Schools, Waterloo, Alabama: to study the adjustment of the high school to pupil and community needs in the South, at George Peabody College.

CLIFTON RALPH JONES, Nanticoke, Maryland: to study the social stratification of Negroes, at the University of Iowa. Reappointment.

MARSHALL THOMAS KANE, reporter, The New Orleans Item, New Orleans, Louisiana: to write a book regarding early Louisiana history.

THOMAS HENNINGSON KERR, JR., Library of Congress, Washington, D. C.: for creative work in musical composition, at the Juillard School of Music.

CHARLES RALPH LAWRENCE, JR., co-executive secretary, National Student Y. M. C. A., Atlanta, Georgia: for a study of the racial-ethical social movements among Negroes in Harlem, at Columbia University.

JACOB LAWRENCE, New York City: for creative work in painting. Reappointment.

w WILLIAM ALEXANDER MITCHELL, Clemson, South Carolina: for a study of the development of administrative techniques in the government of the Carolinas, at Princeton University.

✓ w JAMES ELMER MONTGOMERY, Nashville, Tennessee: for studies in population and balanced exploitation of natural resources, at Vanderbilt University.

w ELLEN HULL NEFF, Abingdon, Virginia: for studies in sociology, at the University of North Carolina.

See course. N GORDON ALEXANDER PARKS, Chicago, Illinois: for studies in photography.

w ROBERT RAMSEY, Forest Products Chemical Company, Memphis, Tennessee: for the writing of a novel about a white tenant farm family in eastern Arkansas.

w HERMAN EVERETTE SPIVEY, associate professor of English, University of Florida: for a bibliographical guide to the significant collections of manuscripts, letters, diaries, and other materials pertaining to the literary culture of the South.

Army or Prairie View

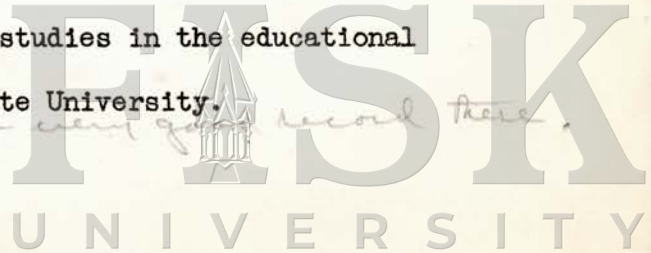

N CLARENCE FRANCIS STEPHENS, instructor in mathematics, Prairie View State College, Prairie View, Texas: for research in the solution of non-linear difference equations, at the University of Michigan.

N CHARLES HENRY THOMPSON, dean of the College of Liberal Arts, Howard University, Washington, D. C.: for a study of the social and educational philosophy of Booker T. Washington.

N CHARLES HENRY TOWNES, instructor in physics and chemistry, Virginia State College: for a study of age-hardening of certain alloys with the growth of crystals of a new phase, at Pennsylvania State College.

✓✓ w WILLIAM DANIEL VARNELL, science instructor, University of Tennessee Experimental School, Norris, Tennessee: for studies in the educational problems of southern communities, at Ohio State University.

now teaching at Ohio State - make a very good record there.

MARGARET MORAN LAWRENCE, M. D., interne, Harlem Hospital, New York

City: for studies in public health and pediatrics, at Delaware Institute of Public Health, College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia University.

CLAIRE MARCELOTTE LEAKE, Pierce City, Missouri: for studies in ethnobotany, at Radcliffe College.

ULYSSES GRANT LEE, JR., assistant professor of English, Lincoln

University, Pennsylvania: for studies in American culture, at the University of Chicago. Responment.

ARTHUR STANLEY LIME, New Market, Virginia: for a study of the effect of Woodrow Wilson's "New Freedom" on the South, at the University of North Carolina.

JOHN WILLIAM LISCOCKS, assistant city editor, The Nashville Tennessan, Nashville, Tennessee: for a study of the history of the poll tax and its relation to southern state government and social problems.

ROBERT LLOYD, chemist, Kingsbury Ordnance Plant, LaPorte, Indiana for studies of the chemical and engineering aspects of the manufacture of pharmaceutical and medicinal products, at Purdue University.

HERMAN HODGE LONE, research assistant, department of social sciences,

Fisk University, Nashville, Tennessee: for a comparative study of "collaborance"

Charles H. Townes: Read paper on his thesis before American Physical Society in New York in January, 1943. Doctor Wheeler Davey says to best of his knowledge this is the first time a Negro has given a scientific paper before this society. Sent reprints of Townes News by Dr. Davey 4/20/44. Pub in transactions of The American Society for Metals.

Daniel Gregory Mason of Columbia University.

JESSE WILLIAM MARKHAM, Richmond, Virginia: for a study of wages differences between the South and other regions with reference to five manufacturing industries, at Johns Hopkins University.

N HARRY JOSEPH WALKER, instructor in sociology, Howard University, Washington, D. C.: for a study of race conflict in a southern community, at the University of Chicago.

any - my last my address
N CHARLES WILBERT WHITE, Chicago, Illinois: to study mural techniques in Mexico, and to paint a mural depicting the role of the Negro in the development of a democratic America.

Success story or biography
N J. ERNEST WILKINS, JR., Chicago, Illinois: for studies of the multiple integral problems in the calculus of variations, at the Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton.

N ERIC WILLIAMS, assistant professor of social and political science, Howard University, Washington, D. C.: for political and economic studies of the Caribbean area.

N MARGARET JUST WORMLEY, instructor in English language and literature, Miner Teachers College, Washington, D. C.: for studies in the new southern literature, at Boston University. Reappointment.

N LEON EDWARD WRIGHT, Boston, Massachusetts: for studies in philosophy and religion, at Harvard University.

JULIUS ROSENWALD FUND

SCHOLARSHIPS TO COLLEGE SENIORS, 1942

ANDREW NORWOOD AHEART, Richmond, Virginia, student at Virginia Union University: for graduate study in mathematics, at Harvard University.

DOROTHY COMITA ATECA, Kissimmee, Florida, student at Spelman College, Atlanta, Georgia: for advanced study in dramatics.

ADA ELIZABETH BOUGH, Christiansted, St. Croix, Virgin Islands, student at Howard University, Washington, D. C.: for graduate work in medieval and modern European history, at Radcliffe College.

LAURA ELIZABETH CHASE, Annapolis, Maryland, student at Hampton Institute, Hampton, Virginia: to attend the New York School of Social Work.

OLIVIA BETTY CURRY, Asbury Park, New Jersey, student at Fisk University, Nashville, Tennessee: for graduate work in sociology, at Fisk University.

ALVIN BASILE JONES, New Orleans, Louisiana, student at Dillard University, New Orleans: for graduate work in labor relations, at Fisk University.

LAWRENCE NEALE JONES, Moundsville, West Virginia, student at West Virginia State College: for graduate study in history at the University of Chicago.

LOUIS PAUL KASSOUF, Birmingham, Alabama, student at Birmingham-Southern College: for graduate studies in economics, at the University of Chicago.

GEORGE ERNEST LEE, JR., Newark, New Jersey, student at Talladega College, Talladega, Alabama: for graduate study in political science, at Harvard University.

PAUL EDDIE MANNERS, Nashville, Tennessee, student at Vanderbilt University, Nashville: for graduate work at the University of Pennsylvania.

CHARLES EDWARD MAXEY, Brooklyn, New York, student at Morehouse College, Atlanta, Georgia: for graduate study in business administration at Harvard University.

BARDIN HUBERT NELSON, Oakland, Louisiana, student at Louisiana State University: for graduate study in sociology at Louisiana State University.

MARION JENNINGS RICE, Allendale, South Carolina, student at Emory University, Georgia: for graduate work in rural education at the University of Iowa.

EMILY HOWLAND SPENCER, Washington, D. C., student at Virginia State College, Ettrick, Virginia: for graduate work in American literature, at Cornell University.

CATHERINE LOUISE SWANSON, Danville, Virginia, student at Howard University, Washington, D. C.: for graduate work in French literature and language at McGill University, Montreal, Canada.

COLA MAE WAKEFIELD, Hartwell, Georgia, student at Piedmont College, Demorest, Georgia: for graduate work in journalism, at New York University.