

Candidate Louis Bartleson Ambler, Jr. Special Field
 Assistant Professor of Landscape Architecture, City and Regional Planning
 Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Auburn

Plan of Work

351 North Gay St

General study and advanced research in city and regional planning from the economic and aesthetic standpoint to supplement past and present studies of landscape architecture, city planning and economics. Course of studies to be taken at Harvard University.

Seeks Masters degree, working under Prof. Henry V. Hubbard. Two and one-half years.

Digest of Application

Born June, 1908, Pennsylvania. Married, one child.

Bachelor of Landscape Architecture, University of Pennsylvania, 1931.
Graduate work, Alabama Polytechnic Institute, spring, 1936, summer 1938, winter 1938-39.

Undergraduate tuition scholarship for three years at University of Pennsylvania, 1928-31.

Technical Advisor, Lower Merion Township Shade Tree Commission, Ardmore, Pa., 1931-35, $2400; assistant professor of landscape architecture, Alabama Polytechnic Institute, 1935 - , $2350, plus income from private practice, $500.

Has written miscellaneous magazine and newspaper articles.

If any are available, will apply for a scholarship to cover the $400 tuition at Harvard.

References

- Mr. Robert Wheelwright, Professor of Landscape Architecture, University of Pennsylvania
- Mr. E. Walter Burkhardt, Alabama Polytechnic Institute
- Dr. E. L. Rauber, Alabama Polytechnic Institute
- Dean F. C. Biggin, Alabama Polytechnic Institute
- Mr. William E. Stokes, Attorney, Roanoke, Virginia

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	$ 3104
From applicant	---
From Fund	$ 3104

Committee Notes

Granted

put

Documents submitted

- Photograph
- Exhibit material
- Transcripts
- University of Pennsylvania

Digest

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

Plan of work

