

Name Ned Phillips De Witt Field: Creative Writing

Advertising Salesman and Associate Editor
 "Life in Oklahoma" magazine
 220 Key Building, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

1612 North Broadway

Plan of Work

The compilation of the stories of workers in oil in Oklahoma.

Seeks no degree. Will work under the supervision of Mr. W. T. Couch.
 Probable duration of work one year, beginning as soon as possible. Will not return to present position.

Personal Data

Born Fayetteville, Arkansas, January, 1911.
 Married, one child.

Age: 29

Undergraduate Work

Oklahoma City University, 1930-31

University of Oklahoma, 1931-32

Graduate Work

Experience

Call-in man, Associated Press, Oklahoma City, 1929, $800;
 pipeliner, rigger, etc. for oil field contractors, all over Oklahoma, 1932-35, .50 - 1.00 per hour; free lance writer, Oklahoma City, 1935-36;
 assistant director, Federal Writers' Project, Oklahoma City, 1936-39, $1920;
 advertising salesman and associate editor, Life in Oklahoma magazine, 1939 -, commissions.

Accomplishments

Publications: Oklahoma Past and Present (adopted as a textbook in history for Oklahoma schools, 1939-40); one of four contributors to "The Economy of Scarcity", August 1939 selection of the Pamphlet of the Month Club; contributor to newspapers and pulp magazines.

writer for exhibit 3/57

References

W. T. Couch, Director, University of North Carolina Press
 Savoie Lottinville, Director, University of Oklahoma Press
 James W. Moffitt, Secretary, Oklahoma Historical Society
 Winifred Johnston, Editor, Cooperative Books, Norman, Oklahoma
 Ben A. Botkin, National Folklore Editor, Federal Writers Project

Budget Summary

Total Amount Needed	$1800.00
From Applicant	---
From Fund	$1800.00

AMOUNT GRANTED

Plan of Work X Photograph X
 Transcripts X Exhibit Material
 Oklahoma City University

Sent to Committee

3/13

16

F O S K
 UNIVERSITY
 out