

HOPE MATHILDE IMES

Draftsman, Army Map Service
Indianapolis, Indiana

History

Not easy to appraise

High praise of her intelligence: yet she had very poor record at Wellesley

She has done drawing, poetry?, confrose. She wants to study
<sup>all over the map</sup>
history and write a manual!

Strikes me as having more
"personality" than anything else

1945 RR

Name Hope Mathilde Imes

Field: History

Draftsman, Army Map Service
2917 Boulevard Place, Indianapolis 8, Indiana

Plan of Work

To attend Columbia University next year and work toward a Master of Arts degree in history.

Requests grant for nine months beginning September 1945. Wishes to work under the supervision of Professor Krout at Columbia.

Personal Data

Born Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, August, 1921.
Single.

Age: 24
Draft Status:

Undergraduate Work Wellesley College, B.A., 1943.

Graduate Work

Experience Draftsman, Army Map Service, Indianapolis, Indiana, 1943- , $1800.

Accomplishments

References

Edward E. Curtis, Wellesley College
Mrs. Brenda M. Francke, teacher, New York City
John Johnson, clergyman, New York City
Annie Gray, retired teacher, Washington, D. C.
Otelia Cromwell, retired professor, Washington, D. C.

Budget Summary

Total Amount Needed	$1,500
From Applicant	-
From Fund	$1,500

Sent to Committee

AMOUNT GRANTED

