SCHOLARSHIP

The Julius Rosenwald Fund is making a review of the Negro fellowships which it has granted during the past seven years. Since an appraisal of our activity thus far in this field will naturally have some effect on future policy, it is requested that all persons who have received fellowship grants from the Fund cooperate by filling in carefully the brief information asked for on the following blank and returning the information promptly to the Fund.

Name Hulda L. Bryant

Position at time grant was made Foods Instructor at Tuskegee Institute

Specific purpose of the fellowship study To do further study in the field of Nutrition

Subject studied under the fellowship (or special work accomplished) Completed a dietary study of Negro Pre-school children.

Institution at which fellowship study was carried on (or, if no specific institution was attended, state nature and place of the work carried out under the grant)

Chicago University

Present position or occupation Foods Instructor at Prairie View State College, Texas.

Your opinion of benefits received from the fellowship (I was able to do advance work in a field in which very few Negro home economists enter.) The grant enabled me to pursue my study for ^{an} entire year which I should never have been able to do otherwise. I also was able to attend the school of my choice because of the financial assistance given me through this fund.

SCHOLARSHIP

April 9, 1931

My dear Miss Bryant: I have the honor to inform you that at a meeting of the Committee on Fellowships of the Julius Rosenwald Fund, you were awarded a grant of $1,000 to study home economics during the year 1931-1932.

The award is made subject to approval of your proposed course of study by the Officers of this Fund and your acceptance for the course with proper credits by the university in which you propose to enroll.

It is our understanding that you plan to study home economics at the University of Chicago. We suggest that you make application promptly for enrollment and obtain the assurance of the authorities of the university that on the basis of your present credits, you will be eligible for the Degree of Master of Science at the end of one year of study.

Further correspondence concerning your work, the procedure in payments on the fellowship, and other details should be carried on with Mr. George R. Arthur of this office.

The Trustees and Officers of the Fund take much satisfaction in being able to co-operate with you in your plans for further study.

Very truly yours,

ERE:VH
