

Candidate Lawrence Alexander Whitfield ✓

Special Field Zoology

Associate Professor of Biology, Florida & M. College
Tallahassee, Florida

(Embryology)

Plan of Work

To complete work toward the Ph.D. degree in the field of Human Embryology (A study of the Anatomy, Differentiation, and Physiological development of the Human Pituitary Gland).

Wishes to study at the University of Chicago, beginning October, 1938, for four to six quarters. Has been admitted. Can return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born September, 1908, Bloomington, Illinois. Single.

B.S., 1928 and M.S., 1930 from University of Chicago. Attended University of Chicago, 1930-31; Fall Quarter, 1936. Phi Beta Kappa.

Instructor of Zoology, Howard University, Washington, D. C. 1929-30, $2000.
Associate Professor of Biology, Florida A. & M. College, Tallahassee, Florida, 1931-$1500.

Scholarships, University of Chicago, paying tuitions during four years college work, 1924-28, $500 per year.

References

G. R. E. Lee, President, Florida A. & M. College

George K. Arthur, Secretary, Wabash Avenue YMCA

Dr. B. C. H. Harvey, Dean University of Chicago Medical School, Chicago, Illinois

Budget Summary

Total amount needed $1650

From applicant _____

From Fund $1500

Committee Notes

Granted

Documents submitted

Photograph x

Exhibit material

Transcripts x

University of Chicago

University of Chicago (M.S.)

Plan of work x

Digest

Complete

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

