

Candidate Stacy Boyce Randle

Special Field

Research Assistant in Agricultural Chemistry
University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin

Agricultural (Bio)
Chemistry

Plan of Work

205 South Mills

A study of the nutritive value of young plant tissue for both human and animals. Study the properties of this factor and an attempt at isolation. Study sources and the best methods of preservation of the factor.

Wishes to work for Ph.D. at the University of Wisconsin, beginning September, 1938, for the period of one year.

Digest of Application

Born July, 1905, Blue Springs, Mississippi. Married.

Obtained A.B., 1930 and M.S., 1935 from the University of Mississippi. Attended University of Wisconsin, summer 1936. Has been at the University of Wisconsin since June, 1937.

Laboratory Assistant, University of Mississippi, 1928-30, $150-$500. High School Science Teacher, Blue Springs, Mississippi and Dublin, Mississippi, 1930-31, 1931-32, $555-$900. Graduate Assistant, University of Mississippi, 1932-34, $300-$500. Head, Science Department, University High School, Oxford, Mississippi, 1934-37, $1400.

Master's Thesis: The Preparation and Decomposition of Certain Halogenated Phenols.

Research Assistant, University of Wisconsin, 1937-38, $600.

References

Budget Summary

- ✓ Mr. C. A. Elvehjem, Prof. Agri. Chem. University of Wisconsin
- ✓ Mr. E. B. Hart, Head, Dept. Agri. Chem. " "
- Mr. G. H. Woollett, Head, Dept. Chem., University of Mississippi

Total amount needed	$2120
From applicant	600
From Fund	$1500
Granted

Committee Notes

Further consideration

Documents submitted

- Photograph
- Exhibit material
- Transcripts
- University of Mississippi
- University of Mississippi (M.A.)
- Plan of work

Digest

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

