Dear Mr. Loemker: We are preparing a full report for our trustees on persons who have held fellowships, and would like to have up-to-date information. It will be of great service to us if you will give the information called for below, and return the sheet to us at once. In addition to these bare facts we should be glad to know of anything interesting that has happened to you, or that you have accomplished either during your tenure of fellowship or since your return to your post. Our trustees have a continuing interest in the Fellows and we like to keep them informed. Please use additional pages if necessary.

Has there been any change in your rank, position, or salary since the completion of your fellowship? If so, please indicate.

None. The department of philosophy at Emory has been enlarged by the addition of Dr. Lewis Beck, (Rosenwald Fellow for 1937-8) Publications since you were awarded the fellowship. Please give publisher.

None

Additional information:

Dear Dr. Reynolds,

I greatly regret my delay in sending in this information, and the inconvenience it has caused you.

Several developments have interfered with the progress of my work since the beginning of August. The first is illness. A case of ptomaine poisoning developed while I was in Boston early in August has recurred several times since and forced two brief hospital stays. The doctor has warned against nervous tension and overexertion. Committee work connected with the beginning of the new school year has been unusually heavy. And I have felt under obligation to respond to many requests for (over) discussion of the German situation. During the past month I have spoken ten times, I have twelve more appointments before Christmas, and have declined as many more.

I hope to have two articles based on my research ready to submit to the journals before long. My long-term plans have not been changed.

Hoping that this will reach your office in time, and that you will forgive my carelessness, I am

Sincerely yours,

Leroy E. Loewker
