Dear Mr. Haygood,

Arrived in New York at 9 P.M. feeling fine. Enjoyed the trip very much and particularly the short visit with you and the auditions. It was all most interesting.

My fare out and back with the incidental expenses come to $95.00.

I will be sending along the full report to you in a few days, and will let you know the disposition of the other case when I hear the young lady.

Many thanks for your kindness, and hope this finds you well etc.

very sincerely yours,

Bernard Taylor

Dear Mr. Taylor: I am sending you herewith a check in the amount of $145.00 to cover your travel expenses plus honorarium for serving as our music jury. I am ashamed to think how small it is in comparison with the amount of effort and thought you put into this program for us each year; but I hope you can find some use for it.

I'll be looking forward to receiving the final write-up, although I hope you won't rush yourself on this score.

Thanks again for everything, and I hope to have the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Taylor the next time I am in New York.

Sincerely yours,

WILLIAM C. HAYGOOD
