

Candidate William Bradford Pratt

Special Field Romance
LanguagesAssistant Professor of French, Spanish, Italian
West Virginia State College, Institute

Plan of Work

By close scientific observation of the theory and practice of modern language teaching in France, I plan to work out a set of logical courses and examinations suitable for the thirty Negro junior and senior high schools of West Virginia.

Wishes to study at Universite de Dijon, France; seeking degree of Docteur es Lettres. To begin work fall of 1939, for one year.

Will return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born January, 1906, King George County, Virginia. Married.

B.A. from Harvard College, 1931. M.A. from Graduate School of Boston College, 1932.

Assistant professor, West Virginia State College, 1932 -, $1440 - $1800.

References

Budget Summary

Mr. David Kirby, Secretary, State Board of Education, W.Va.	Total amount needed	$2,050.
Mr. J. C. Evans, West Virginia State College.	From applicant	500.
Mr. Paul V. Donovan, Professor of French, Boston College.	From Fund	$1,550.
Mr. David A. Lane, Dean, Municipal College, Louisville.

Committee Notes

Granted

Documents submitted

Photograph
 Exhibit material
 Transcripts
 Harvard College
 Boston College
 Plan of work

Digest

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

