

Candidate Maggie Browne Daniel ✓

Special Field

Professor of English & American Literature
Wiley College, Marshall, Texas

American Literature
(Social Interpretation)

Plan of Work

I plan to interpret the writings on Slavery of the Massachusetts School of Polite Letters that were published between 1831 (when Garrison started the Liberator) and 1861 (when the Civil War began).

Wishes to work for Ph.D. at the University of Wisconsin, beginning September, 1938, for the period of one year. Can return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born October, 1906, La Grange, Texas. Married.

A.B. from Wiley College, 1926. M.A. from the University of Wisconsin, 1930.

Professor of English, Wiley College, Marshall, Texas, 1928-35, 1937- , $675-$900.
Professor of English, Houston College for Negroes, Texas, 1935-36, $1026.

Research: "Emerson and Education"
"Influence of the Slavery Controversy on Writers in American Literature - 1851-1861".

References

Budget Summary

Harry Hayden Clark, Prof. American Lit. University of Wisconsin
Nathaniel P. Tillman, Prof. English, Morehouse
College
Felton G. Clark, President, Southern University

Total amount needed	$1575
From applicant	150
From Fund	$1425

Committee Notes

Granted

Documents submitted

Photograph
Exhibit material
Transcripts
Wiley College
University of Wisconsin
Plan of work

Digest Proof

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

