Dear Bill: We miss you very much at the fellowship meetings. I suppose we will have to bow to circumstance and accept the fact that there are so many pressures on you that we have no right to ask for the detailed work and the occasional meeting time that the Fellowship Committee involves. We have asked young Gould Beech to sit in with us this year. He will bring some new points of view to the committee that, I am sure, will be helpful.

Even excusing you from committee service, does not excuse you, or us, from the obligation to see each other more frequently than we have in the past. Whenever you get near this region, be sure to let us know. In turn, I am still looking forward to a visit to the University of Alabama.

Very truly yours,
