

Name Christiana McFadyen REAPPOINTMENT Field: History
 Graduate Student, University of Chicago
 5848 University Avenue, Chicago

Plan of Work

To continue research on the Populist-Republican period of North Carolina history. This will consist of an attempt to determine: (1) the roots of the movement; (2) what the actualities of the period were, in a time when actual conditions were obscured by prejudice and political strife; (3) forces underlying and responsible for events; (4) relation to regional and national history.

Wishes to attend University of Chicago, working under Professor Avery O. Craven, during academic year 1942-43. Will take preliminary examinations for the Ph. D. at the end of current year.
