

Name Irene Caldwell Hypps
Field: Creative Writing
Head, Dept. of Business Education, Public Schools of the District of Columbia
Franklin Administration Building, 13th and K Streets, NW, Washington 5, D.C.

Plan of Work To write an historical, biographical novel of George L. White, organizer and first director of the Fisk Jubilee Singers

Requests grant to begin June 1947 to October 1948

Personal Data Born Mobile, Alabama, August 1898
Divorced, one dependent
Age: 48
Draft Status: none

Undergraduate Work Fisk University, 1915-17
Straight University, diploma, 1918

Graduate Work Washington Square College, 1922-23
Howard University, A.B. 1926
New York University M.A. 1932
New York University 1934-36
New York University Ph.D. 1943
Special Study:
Howard University 1935, 1939,
1940, 1941
New York University, 1946-47

Experience Secretary to Div. Chief, U.S. Navy Dept. 1919-22, $1320 start, $1680 finish;
Teacher, Randall Jr. High School, Washington, 1924-46, $1600; Editor and administrative assistant, 137th Street Branch YWCA, New York City, 1927-29, $1700;
Business Mgr. and Asst. News Editor, NAACP Crisis magazine, New York, 1930-32, $1920; Head teacher, community subjects, Public Schools, Washington, 1933-39, $2300; Head, Business Education Dept. Public Schools, Washington, 1940- , $4450.

Accomplishments Delta Pi Epsilon (Alpha Chapter)
National Honorary Society in Business Education

Publications and Research (See attached sheet)

Scholarships: Fellowship to Progressive Education Workshop at Sarah Lawrence College, summer 1936 provided by NAACP

References

Paul S. Lomax, New York University
Lloyd L. Jones, Gregg Publishing Co. New York
Howard H. Long, Henry Wilson School, Washington
Ambrose Caliver, U. S. Office of Education, Washington
Joseph Pierce, Atlanta University, Atlanta
Rachel Davis DuBois, Workshop for Cultural Democracy, New York

Budget Summary

Total Amount Needed	$1800
From Applicant	---
From Fund	$1800

Sent to Committee

AMOUNT GRANTED