Race Relations

Not a fellowship, merely a subsidy to do a couple of photographic books
Good photographer - "with deep convictions about minorities"
but outside our scope

Name Elizabeth Colman Field: Race Relations

Free-lance photographer under contract with Doubleday Doran Co.
210 Central Park South, New York City

Plan of Work To publish one of two projects (1) a photographic book with the tentative title "Dawn of Chance" - a photographic survey of Negroes in positions still widely denied them; (2) a photographic book with the tentative title "American Future" - portraying children of all the races that form the American people.

Requests grant for one year beginning either in summer or fall, 1946.
Will continue with photographic work in the field of race relations.
