

Candidate Horace Brightberry Brown, Jr. ✓Special Field Marketing & Economics.*Instructor in Economics, University of Mississippi University, Mississippi

Plan of Work

I would like to spend the year 1938-39 in the Graduate School of Northwestern University studying Marketing and Economics, and doing research in the field of the cooperative marketing of cotton.

Wishes to work for Ph.D. Can return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born August, 1908, Holly Springs, Mississippi. Married, one child.

Attended Asbury College, 1927-28. Obtained B.S.C. from University of Mississippi, 1931; M.B.A. from Northwestern University, 1932. Attended Northwestern University, summers of 1936-1937.

Student Assistant, University of Mississippi, 1930-31, $225. Graduate Assistant Northwestern University, 1931-32, Tuition; summer, 1936, 60¢ hour. Instructor in Economics, University of Mississippi, 1932- , $800-$1620.

Research: Assisted in Mississippi Sales Tax Study of 1933.

Fellowship in Economics, University of Mississippi, 1930-31, $225
Fellowship in Marketing, Northwestern University, 1931-32, tuition.

References

Budget Summary

| | | |
|--|---------------------|------------|
| ✓ Dr. A. B. Butts, Chancellor, University of Mississippi | | |
| Dr. J. W. Bell, Dean, School Commerce & Head, Dept. Econ., University of Mississippi | Total amount needed | $1915 |
| ✓ Dr. Fred E. Clark, School Commerce, Northwestern University | From applicant | 415 |
| Mr. Grady Guyton, Prof. Econ. University of Mississippi | From Fund | $1500 |
| Mr. Ernest H. Bahne, Prof. Econ. Northwestern University | | |
| Committee Notes Mr. R. L. Sackett, Prof. Econ. U. of M. | Granted | |

✓ J. Deussen
✓ Hawkins

(out)

Documents submitted

Photograph
Exhibit material
Transcripts
University of Mississippi
Northwestern University

Plan of work

Digest

Complete

Sent to Committee FEB 11 1938

Documents returned