Travelling Fellow in History
Harvard University

History

a bit over age

Born in Canada, while his family has lived in New Orleans (his father a professor at Tulane) for some time the candidate has neither studied nor spent much time in the South. (Letter from Edgar Stern alludes to his Southernness)

Good letters, though Mark's is not quite top

This man can & will do the study without our help (we would simply make it a little easier for him)

I do not think he falls in our class
