

Candidate

Robert Taylor Cole

Special Field

Political Science

Associate Professor of Political Science

Plan of Work

Duke University, Durham, North Carolina

1021 Minerva Ave

My purpose is to consider certain methods, and the results achieved, in the application of these methods, for obtaining social security in Germany and Italy.

Wishes to spend fourteen or more months in Europe, principally in Germany and Italy, and one month at International Labor Office library in Geneva.

Digest of Application

Born September 3, 1906, Bald Prairie, Texas. Married.

University of Texas, A. B., 1925, M. A., 1927; Harvard University, M. A., 1935, Ph. D., 1936. Heidelberg University, 1933-34.

Louisiana State University, from instructor to associate, 1926-1933, $1800 to $3,500; (except when on leave for study at Harvard). Harvard University, instructor, 1930-31 $1,500, and 1934-35, $2,750; Duke University, Assistant Professor to Associate Professor, 1935- $3,500 to $4,000. Will return to Duke.

Member of the Advisory Editorial Board of the Journal of Politics, which will begin publication in January, 1939. This Journal will be issued by the Southern Political Science Association, with which organization Mr. Cole has served in various official capacities.

Phi Beta Kappa. Has done special research in Germany, 1933-34, and in Germany and Italy during subsequent summers. Articles in Ency. of Social Sciences and professional periodicals.

References

Budget Summary

Calvin B. Hoover, Prof. Economics, Duke University

Total amount needed $2,500

Robert R. Wilson, Chairman Pol. Science Duke

From applicant 500

Earl J. Hamilton, Prof. Econ., Duke University

J. A. Burdine, Assoc. Prof. Govt., Univ. Texas

From Fund $2,000

A. N. Holcombe, Harvard University, Chairman Dept Govt.

C. J. Friedrich, Prof. of Government, Harvard University

Committee Notes

Granted

yes unless $1000 takes

Documents submitted

Photograph
Exhibit material yes
Transcripts no

Digest

Sent to Committee

Plan of work

Documents returned

