

JULIUS ROSENWALD FUND
(RENEWAL)

Candidate Lewis Wade Jones

Special Field

Research assistant & instructor, Fisk University
(on leave) Columbia University, 500 Riverside Drive

Rural Sociology

Plan of Work

To satisfy residence requirement for doctorate and make some investigation of the class stratification of urban Negroes in New York and giving attention to their on-the-job and off-the-job status.

One year. Can return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born March, 1910, Cuero, Texas.

A. B. Fisk University. University of Chicago, 1931-32.

Southern Fellowship, University of Chicago, 1931-32, $750; Rosenwald Fellowship, 1933-39, $1500.

Research assistant, Fisk University, 1932-35, $140-$160; research assistant, Julius Rosenwald Fund, Feb-Dec. 1937, $160-$275.

Research: A study of the Negro in Nashville, 1929; Study of Macon County, Alabama, 1931; A study of the Negro college graduate, 1932; Study of Negro population in Tennessee Valley, 1934; Study of cotton tenancy, 1934; Study of Manatee, Arkansas community, 1935; Preparation of a compendium of southern rural life, 1936-37.

References

Columbia University:
Dr. John W. Innes
Dr. Robert M. MacIver
Dr. Otto Klienberg

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	$ 1500
From applicant	---
From Fund	$ 1500

Committee Notes

Granted out

Documents submitted
Photograph
Exhibit material
Transcripts

Plan of work

Digest

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

