Dear Mr. Embree:

I want to thank you for your very kind letter which came today.

Am happy to say that nothing has given me more pleasure than to be a participant in helping the Julius Rosenwald Fund select fellows for the music division. It has been a highly stimulating and worthwhile experience to me.

I appreciate so much your writing me and assure you that I feel as you do that this has been a terrifically great contribution to young Americans. I only hope that in some way, this great work can be carried on. It is so badly needed and so many people are depending on such help.

Many thanks to you for your kind letter.

Very sincerely yours,

Bernard Taylor
