

Fellowship
Comm.

April 25, 1947

Dear Mr. Still: Your fine report on the composition candidates came today and it gave me a glow to read what you had to say about my friend, Ulysses Kay. If the Committee makes the award at its meeting next weekend, I know of no one who would put it to better use. I shall be on the look-out for the returned material and see that it is sent on to the American Music Center, post-haste.

I am leaving the Rosenwald Fund in June, so this marks the end of my annual calling on you for help. I am hoping that there will be one more year of informally administered fellowships, however. If I ever get out to Los Angeles I should like to feel that I could call on you and Mrs. Still, and thank you in person for all the help you have given during my term as Fellowship Director.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM C. HAYGOOD
