

CHARLES GERALD GREEN

(26)

Director of Dramatics
A. and T. College
Greensboro, North Carolina

Journalism and Radio

Nothing to lead me to change
my low rating of last year
I don't see that Iowa will help him in his radio broadcasting. And no evidence that he has enough dramatic talent to justify support / that

Name Charles Gerald Green Field: Journalism and Radio
 Director of Dramatics
 A and T College, Greensboro, North Carolina

Plan of Work

To write and broadcast a series of radio programs relative to the Negro and patriotism. These will show the Negro's loyalty and service to the Nation during times of national crises, and how Negro leaders have influenced patriotism among their race.

Wishes to work for M. A. degree at University of Iowa under Mr. H. Clay Harshbarger for twelve months beginning in September of 1942.

Applied 1941.

Personal Data Born St. Louis, Missouri, November 11, 1915 Age: 26
 Married. (Child in June) 3-A

Undergraduate Work State University of Iowa, B. A., 1937.

Graduate Work State University of Iowa, one semester of 1937-38.

Experience Instructor, A. and T. College, Greensboro, North Carolina, 1938-42, $1,500.

Accomplishments Has written a number of plays and radio scripts that have been given at the A. and T. College, and broadcast over WBIG. Has also written script for national broadcast from the college. Conducts weekly program of poems and music over WBIG.

References

Mr. John C. Baker, Department of Agriculture, Washington
 Major Edney Ridge, Program Director, WBIG
 Professor H. Clay Harshbarger, Iowa State University
 Mrs. Pearl Bennet Broxam, Program Director, WSUI, Iowa City
 Mr. F. D. Bluford, A. and T. College, Greensboro

Budget Summary

Total Amount Needed	$ 1,660
From Applicant	-
From Fund	$ 1,660

Sent to Committee

AMOUNT GRANTED