

Candidate Ellen Douglass Leyburn ✓

Special Field

Assistant Professor of English, Agnes Scott College
Decatur, Georgia.

English Literature

Plan of Work

I have in preparation an edition of The Querist by George Berkeley, Bishop of Clogue. To complete the work I should spend some time in Ireland, both at Cloyne and in Dublin. It is for the expenses of a sojourn in Ireland that I need a fellowship.

Will work in the libraries at the Royal Irish Academy, Trinity College, Dublin, and the National Library of Ireland, beginning summer, 1938 for one year. Can return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born September, 1907, Durham, North Carolina. Single.

A.B. from Agnes Scott College, 1927. M.A. from Radcliffe College, 1928.
Ph.D. from Yale University, 1934.

Assistant teacher, Beaver Country Day School, Brockline, Massachusetts, 1928-29, $1000. Teacher of English, Buffalo Seminary, Buffalo, New York, 1929-32, $1600-$1800. Instructor and Assistant Professor, Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Georgia, 1934- , $1500-$1750.

Publications: Article on "The Translations of the Mottoes and Quotations in The Rambler" has been accepted for publication by R. B. McKerrow, editor of the Review of English Studies. Bishop Berkeley: The Querist, published December, 1937, by the Royal Irish Academy.

University Scholarship at Yale, 1933-34, $300.

References

James Ross McCain, President, Agnes Scott College

George P. Hayes, Head, English Dept. Agnes Scott
CollegeChauncey B. Tinker, Professor English, Yale University

Budget Summary

Total amount needed $1480

From applicant _____

From Fund $1500

Committee Notes

Granted

killed out on field Mac: 20 originality as yet, just an expansion of her doctorate.

Documents submitted

Photograph x

Exhibit material

Transcripts x

Agnes Scott College

Radcliffe College

Yale University

Plan of work x

Digest

Complete

Sent to Committee FEB 11 1938

Documents returned