

Candidate James Otis Smith ✓

Special Field Psychology

Professor of Psychology and Dean of College Instruction
Alcorn A. and M. College, Alcorn, Mississippi

Plan of Work

Guidance, educational and vocational, through formal study, research and surveys. The construction of a program adaptable to schools or groups based on aptitudes, abilities and opportunities, aiding in economic and social adjustment.

Seeking Ph. D. from New York University, Harvard University, University of Chicago, or Columbia University. Duration of study one year to begin autumn, 1938. Will return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born December, 1909, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Married.

A. B. from West Virginia State College, 1927. A. M. from Northwestern University, 1930.

Experiences: Livingstone College, professor of education and director of athletics, 1930-34, $1,550. South Carolina State College, head, department of education and psychology, 1934-35, $1,200. Alcorn A. and M. College, professor of psychology and dean of college instruction, 1935 to present, $1,800 to $2,200.

Publications: Educational and Vocational Guidance for College Students, a manual. The Worker in His Work Unit, an article.

Applied JRF, 1937.

References

Mr. Wm. H. Bell, President, Alcorn College.
Dr. Ullin W. Leavell, George Peabody College.
Dr. R. E. Clement, President, Atlanta University.

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	$2,000
From applicant	400
From Fund	$1,600

Committee Notes

Granted

Documents submitted

Photograph
Exhibit material
Transcripts

West Virginia State College
Northwestern University

Plan of work

Digest base

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

UNIVERSITY