

HERMAN LEROY TAYLOR

Student (part-time); law clerk, NAACP (part-time)
Columbia University

Law

Good recommendations, but they seem to me a bit "forced"
as though Taylor were a good politician.

I'd incline to let him go over, at least for a year.

He's young & in scholarship
has not yet forced himself

1945 RR

Name Herman Leroy Taylor

Field: Law

Student, Columbia University (part-time); law clerk, NAACP (part-time)
247 West 111th Street, Apartment 15, New York, New York

Plan of Work

To make an analytical study of the developments in the field of labor in the interest of establishing a basis for stricter governmental control of labor, especially governmental imposition of compulsory arbitration of labor disputes.

Requests grant for one year beginning September, 1945. Wishes to work toward Ph.D. at Columbia University under the supervision of Professor Lindsay Rogers.

Personal Data Born Richmond, Virginia, July, 1919.
Married, two children.

Age: 26
Draft Status: 4F

Undergraduate Work Virginia Union University, B.S., 1938.

Graduate Work School of Business, Columbia University, M.S., 1940.
School of Law, Columbia University, 1943-

Experience Instructor, Virginia Union University, Richmond, Virginia, 1940-43, $1200; law clerk, NAACP, 69 Fifth Avenue, New York City, 1943- , $1200.

Accomplishments Member, Columbia Law Review.

Master's thesis: Valuation of Intangible Assets.

Scholarships: Scholarship, Virginia Union University, 1934-35.
Scholarship, Columbia Law School, since 1943.

References

Walter White, New York City
Thurgood Marshall, New York City
Lindsay Rogers, Columbia University
Paul R. Hays, Columbia University

Budget Summary

Total Amount Needed	$1,350
From Applicant	-
From Fund	$1,350

Sent to Committee

