

Name Crawford Bernard Lindsay
 Assistant Professor of English
 Morehouse College, Atlanta, Georgia

Field: English Language and Literature

Plan of Work

My project involves a study of the literary repercussions of the Anti-Slavery Movement in England. It means an investigation of the literature of the 1780-1833 period in an attempt to see how far the authors were influenced by the slavery question, and what, if any, influence they had upon that movement.

Wishes to attend the University of Pennsylvania, to work for Ph. D. under Professor Earl Leslie Griggs. Study would require a year, beginning in September 1940. Has not yet been admitted. Will return to present position.
