

Candidate Joseph Newton Hill
Head, Department of English,
Lincoln University, Pennsylvania

Special Field
English and Drama

Plan of Work

To study the drama and allied arts, with a view to directing classroom procedure more effectively and to establishing a higher standard of activity in these fields in the Negro college.

Seeks Ph.D. at Yale University. Two years. Can return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born December, 1899, Baltimore, Maryland. Married, two children.

A. B. Lincoln University, 1920. M. A. Lincoln University, 1921. University of Chicago, summer of 1928. Columbia University, 1928.

Instructor, Douglass High School, Baltimore, 1921-25, $1560; instructor, Dunbar High School, Washington, D. C. 1926-32, $2800; professor, Lincoln University, 1932 - , $5000.

Has written verse which appeared in "The Crisis."

Possibly grant-in-aid from G. E. B.

References

- Mr. Walter L. Wright, President, Lincoln University
- Mr. Dwight O. W. Holmes, President, Morgan College
- Miss Florence M. Read, President, Spelman College
- Prof. Alain L. Locke, Howard University
- Prof. Horace M. Bond, Fisk University

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	$ 2550
From applicant	800
From Fund	$ 1750

Committee Notes

Granted out

Documents submitted

- Photograph
- Exhibit material
- Transcripts
- Lincoln University

Plan of work

Digest

Sent to Committee 3/10

Documents returned

