

Candidate Edward Allen Jones

Special Field
Languages (French)

Instructor in French, Morehouse College
Atlanta, Georgia

Plan of Work

I should like to return to the Sorbonne and continue my studies toward the Doctorate, presenting a dissertation in some field of French literature, probably some phase of M. Paul Bourget, the acknowledged master of the contemporary psychological novel in France.

Can return to present position at Morehouse College

Digest of Application

Born November, 1903, Indianola, Mississippi. Divorced, two children

Obtained A.B from Morehouse College, 1926; M.A. from Middlebury College, 1930; "Diplome de Professeur" from University of Paris, 1935-36; "Certificat d'etudes francaises" from University of Grenoble, France, summer 1939.

Instructor, Edward Waters College, Jacksonville, Florida, 1926-27, $765 & Board. Instructor, Morehouse College Academy, Atlanta, Georgia, 1927-28, $1000. Instructor, Morehouse College, Atlanta, Georgia, 1928-1937, $1300-$1800.

General Education Board scholarship to Middlebury College, 1929-30, $1200. General Education Board Fellowship to University of Paris, 1935-36, $120 per month for ten months plus transportation and tuition.

Has applied to G.E.B. for fellowship

References

Budget Summary

	College
Dr. Stephen A. Freeman, Dean, French School, Middlebury		Total amount needed	$1,500
✓ M. Henri Chemard, Directeur, Sorbonne, Paris, France		From applicant	_____
✓ Miss Florence W. Read, President, Spelman College		From Fund	$1,500

Committee Notes

Granted

out

Documents submitted

- Photograph
- Exhibit material
- Transcripts
- Morehouse College
- Middlebury College

Plan of work

Digest

complete

Sent to Committee FEB 16 1938

Documents returned

