

Instructor at Dover State College, Delaware, 1928-29; Douglas High School, Key West, Florida, 1929-30; professor at Bishop College, Texas, 1934-35; professor at Dillard University, 1935 - .

Rosenwald Fund Fellow, 1931 and 1932. Shevlin Fellow, University of Minnesota.

Studied at Woods Hole summer of 1942.

Because of numerous faculty changes at Dillard University in the fall of 1942, Mr. Buggs requested postponement of his fellowship for a year, and permission was granted by WCH.

Permission granted to do fellowship work in series of summers, and to return to Dillard for other periods of teaching. Studied under revised plan at Woods Hole in summer of 1943.

1943 - Wayne University, Detroit, Assistant professor of 1944 bacteriology.

1512 St. Antoine Street
Detroit 26, Michigan

